

Kelly Aitken is a writer, visual artist, and art instructor. Her first collection of short stories was nominated for the Commonwealth Prize, Best First Book, Canadian Caribbean Region. She co-edited and contributed to First Writes, an anthology published in 2005. Aitken paints and teaches art at a Toronto shelter for women. She lives with her partner in Toronto.

Publications

Love in a Warm Climate (1998)

Updated 03-05-08